

Corinne Imberski

(she/her)

Corinne is a Chicago based dance performer, choreographer, and improviser. As an independent dance artist, she has presented solo and ensemble works for over thirty years, at venues grand, small, digital, and impromptu. Recent works include the shadow comforts the body, a duet created as a Links Hall Co-MISSION Summer Residency recipient, and later re-created as a dance for camera project in June 2021 as part of Chicago Takes Ten. In April 2020, she began the dance for camera project Roof Series 2020-2021 in response to life in quarantine and crisis.

She is a recipient of the 2020 Meier Achievement Award, and was nominated as "Best Dancer" and "Best Choreographer" in the 2021 Chicago Reader's Best of Chicago poll. In addition to presenting her own work, she is also a member of REIdance group, and performs and collaborates with Ayako Kato/Art Union Humanscape.
