The screenshot shows an email header with the See Chicago Dance logo and the title "The Nutcracker". Below the header is a photograph of a ballerina in a pink tutu holding a nutcracker. Underneath the photo, it says "DanceWest Ballet" and "Dec 7–Dec 9 | Pfeiffer Hall at North Central College". The main body of the email contains a detailed description of the production, including the names of the artistic directors and guest artists. At the bottom, there is an "Event Information" section with a "Tickets & Info" button, the price range "$32-$36", and the dates "Dec 7–Dec 9".

DanceWest Ballet presents its 25th production of The Nutcracker, one of the world's most beautiful and engaging ballets and an annual holiday tradition in Naperville. Presented in its entirety, DanceWest's Artistic Directors, Regina and Ricardo Moyano, have ensured that their version of The Nutcracker is an accurate depiction of the original ballet, incorporating exceptional and stunning costumes, lights, scenery, and choreography. Guest artists include Katia Carranza, current principal dancer with Miami City Ballet, and Eduardo Pi Iglesias, formerly of Ballet De Monterrey, Mexico. Other world-renowned guest artists augment the cast, in addition to over 130 children from throughout DuPage County. In reviews of DanceWest Ballet's production of The Nutcracker, Tim West, Chief Editor of The Naperville Sun said "...DanceWest Ballet gives a major-league performance," and Lois Michel, Staff Writer of The Naperville Sun wrote "DanceWest Ballet sparkles with its Nutcracker rendition."
