

LeChae Mottley, LSW (she, her, hers) is a career counselor at The Actors Fund's Central Region office in Chicago. She specializes in connecting performing arts and entertainment professionals to sustainable and fulfilling career options through counseling, workshops and job search coaching. Since 2015, LeChae has been providing case management, counseling and trauma therapy services to clients in Chicago. With these experiences, LeChae continues to integrate trauma-informed care and anti-oppressive social work perspectives into her work as a career counselor. Through the Career Center, entertainment professionals learn how to reach economic and personal fulfillment in a safe, nonjudgmental environment.
